Judge Edward F. Dancy was nominated by the democrats of Chicago for mayor of that city. The uniform adopted by the democrats for the municipal ownership of street car lines and other public utilities, and the construction of subways to be owned and perpetually operated by the city.

Senator McCleary sponsored before the Senate Committee on Commerce and succeeded in having a provision for a $50,000 appropriation to complete lock and dam No. 12 of the Kentucky river inserted in the Rivers and Harbors bill. This sum was necessary in addition to $174,000 on hand to complete the improvements.

Congressman D. C. Edwards, who has been in Washington several weeks in the interest of his contest against Congressman Hunter for a seat in Congress, reached home to day. He says he hardly thinks the committee will take any action on the matter before adjournment. He says he is still hopeful of securing the appointment of Judge Cooper as collector at Danville—London dispatch to C-J.

Rev. Benjamin W. Ashley is to jail at Newport, Tenn., on a charge of perjury and may also be prosecuted for bigamy. Ashley is a minister of the Christian Church.

The Court of Appeals took oral testimony and heard the reading of depositions in the case of James Hargis and others against Judge Wattle Parker, asking for a writ of prohibition restraining the Fayette circuit court from assuming jurisdiction of the trial of cases against defendants for conspiracy in the murder of James Cook, town marshal of Jackson. Twenty witnesses were heard, including the defendants. Alex Hargis admitted that as early as September last he sought legal advice as to how to bring himself, his brothers and Ed Callahan arrested by the Breathitt authorities in order to escape the jurisdiction of the Fayette circuit court. He also admitted that the warrants for their arrest in January were issued at the instance of their own attorneys. He denied, however, as did James Hargis and Elbert Hargis, that collusion was resorted to to defeat the ends of justice. Arguments were made before the court by Commonwealth's Attorney John L. Allen and the Hon. Jere H. Morton, for the State, and by the Hon. Lewis McQuinn for the defendants. The court granted both sides until today to file briefs, when the case will be taken under advisement and a decision announced later.

MARIONETRY.—Little Robert Rice, youngest son of A. J. Rice, was badly burned Thursday by his clothes catching fire. The C. E. Society met with Mrs. R. A. McGrath, Jr., Thursday. M. P. ## What is Home Without a Good Roof On It?

Will you need a new roof on your house? Are you going to build? If so, it will do no harm to get my prices on roofing. When a shingle roof gets old and a dry spell comes, think of the consequences if a spark falls on it! While you can throw a handful of fire on a metal roof without danger.

And Save Money.

E. C. WALTON

The mayor of Richmond, Va., seems to be a good-looking old soul, whose modesty rebels on the slightest provocation. The sight of a female leg, excuse us, "limb," whether real or imaginary, seems to strike him with a holy horror to such an extent as to throw him into convulsions. A comic opera company, whose female cast made up beauty of limb what they lacked in melody of voice, was to "show" in the city and all the dead walls were enlivened with counterfeit prevarications of beauties in tights or with skirts very much abbreviated. The mayor saw them, blushed behind his fan and ordered forthwith that the pictures be torn down or that white paper be pasted over the objectionable lower extremities. He also ordered that all country dances for showing how pretty a leg would look in certain tosyls should be removed from the dry goods windows, and that nothing be left to remind one of the beauty of the female form divine. Meanwhile the mayor is making sport of the crazy old crank and thinking that a man who cannot appreciate such beauties of nature is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils and should not be trusted with office.

Truly there is nothing new under the sun. Dr. William Osler, professor of medicine in Johns Hopkins University, is getting much advertising and creating great comment because he declares that men are not much account after 40 and that if they are permitted to live till 60 they should be put to death by chloroform. This was a favorite theory of the late Judge Thomas W. Vance, of that county who related that it was the age that man should be put to death. We are not sure that we agree with these distinguished gentlemen in full, but we are sure that if many men were put to death at 40, or even 45, the country would be the richer.

The Lexington Morning Herald stands committed to unqualified confidence in the courts and justice of Fayette county for a fair trial of men that is, editorially, convicted before trial. But the Herald still lacks confidence and respect for the courts and justice of Scott and Franklin counties for having thrice convicted men that the Herald, editorially, acquitted before trial. Perhaps the Herald might consent to have its friends Taylor and Finley tried in Fayette county if they distinguished refugees from justice could be prevailed upon to stand a trial in Kentucky soil.—Somerset Journal-Good. Hit 'em again, friend Campbell.

WHENEVER certain papers haven't anything else to write about, they jump on the Hargies. Perhaps and doubtless they need jumping on, but it becomes one of the papers' foremost duty to cast stones. There is no sort of condescension in beating the Hargies and handing round the hat for that arch conspirator of assassination, Caleb Powers. He has been thrice convicted of the foulest crime on record. The Herald at least have the benefit of the doubt as to their galls until the reverse is proven.

An absent minded smoker at Both's, Vt., took a cigar from his pocket, bit off the end in his mouth and then deliberately cut off the end of his finger in the cigar cutter. Even at this he did better than the average gentleman who only lost a piece of a finger. The other fellows lose their health and what little brains they have left.

An order is said to have been promulgated by the L. & N. that no mules shall be leased to city, county or State officials. As there is a constitutional inhibition against these officers using mules, the order would indicate that some of them at least have been violating their oaths.

REPRESENTATIVE KENNO, of the Ninth Kentucky District, whose term will expire Saturday, will on Monday engage in the banking business at Mayville. He will be the cashier and part owner of the stock of the Mitchell Finch & Co. banking house.

SENATOR W. B. ALLISON, of Iowa, on Sunday last took all records for continuous and combined service in Congress and in the Senate, when he completed 40 years in Congress, lacking two weeks, and 31 years, 11 months and 14 days in the Senate.

A REGULAR counterfeiting plant, which turned out 10 and 25-cent pieces, has just been discovered in the Virginia penitentiary, which again proves that Satan always finds mischief for idle hands to do.

THE Danville News nominates Hon. Wm. J. Price for Congress. An elegant, brilliant young gentleman in Price and good Congressional timber, too, but the Lincoln time and he must wait awhile.

Gardner Lathrop, of Kansas City, is being prominently mentioned as a compromise republican candidate for United States Senator from Missouri.

W. T. Cole, of Greensburg county, has been appointed county judge, to succeed J. B. Bennett, elected to Congress.

The business section of Lawrenceville, Pa., was destroyed by a fire, which, it is thought, was of incendiary origin.

Thomas Niedringhaus, the republican caucus nominee, lost two more votes in the Senatorial ballot yesterday at Jefferson City, Mo.

Seventeen young natives of Argentina have arrived at New York for four-year courses at various American educational institutions.

The refusal of a woman to dance with an unbidden guest at a wedding celebration in Pennsylvania resulted in two men being killed.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville & Nashville railroad will be held in Louisville March 25 to vote on a bond issue of $50,000,000 to cover the building and equipment of the new Atlantic, Knoxville and Cincinnati division of the road.

MATRIMONIAL.

Maud Gonne, the "Irish Girl of Arc," was granted a divorce in Paris from Maj. McBride.

Not in long time have two weeks passed by without a marriage license being issued at the county clerk's office, but such is the case at present.—Advocate.

Miss Fannie Overstreet, of Casey county, and Mack Ewing, a young farmer living near Maysboro, were married yesterday and were married by Rev. W. L. Dorgan.

The following tells the tale of the great revival held in Louisville: Estimated number who joined the church Sunday, 1,000; estimated total number who professed faith in Christ, 2,000; total number who signed cards showing interest, 15,000; number who heard one or more sermons during the two weeks, 130,000.

Handsome engraved invitations received here of the approaching marriage of Miss Helen Cassell Taylor and Mr. Sam W. Menefee, both of Danville.

The happy event will take place at Trinity Episcopal church, Danville, at 11 A. M. Tuesday, March 7. Miss Taylor is the charming daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Taylor and is as bright and pretty as she is popular. Mr. Menefee is the clever editor of the Danville Advocate, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Menefee, of this place, and is a fine young man in every respect.

HIGHLAND.

Mr. Mary Young is ill again with nervous trouble. Misses Minnie Young and Susie Chestnut are both ill.

C. D. Wardfield, of Shelby county, has arrived with his family and taken possession of the place recently bought of A. A. Bastin.

News has been received of the death of Miss Polly Baskin at the home of her son, Robert Pulliam, at Argenta, Ill. She had only been here a short time. She lived all her long life at this place.

Miss Fannie Young has entered the Waynesburg school. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Adkins have been visiting their children near Franklin, Ill. Mr. Adkins has returned home, while his wife will remain a short time longer. W. G. Aiston and daughter, Muriel, have returned from a trip to Somerset.

Mr. Matthew Leach, a much-respected citizen, who lived near the Georgetown school-house, died early this morning of stomach and liver troubles, after very intense suffering for about 30 hours. Dr. Morris was called, but too late to do any good. He will be buried at the Pleasant Point Baptist church to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. R. B. Manony preached at Bedfordville Sunday.

The Louisville Negro Baptist Conference now has 60 members.

Kentucky Baptist women report for this quarter $6,283.70 contributed.

Bishop McDiwee is slowly recovering and soon will be able to walk about.

The 74,747 foreign missionaries received 2,317 converts each Sunday during last year.

Kentucky conference gave for church extension $37,614.03, and received in donations $26,750 and loans $10,740.

Mrs. Ellen Davis her sold her farm containing 150 acres near Braxton, Mercer county, to John Divine at $67.50.

There were 72 conversions at the Boonville revival, conducted by the woman evangelist, Miss Lucy Lee Mahan, of London.

Worldwide Methodists now have 49,364 pastors, 30,789 churches, 106,418 local preachers, 6,367,739 Sunday School scholars, 7,895,418 communicants. One person in every 200 of the world's population is a Methodist.

The trustees of the Christian church at Peoria, Ill., a large and influential congregation, met and decided that the pastor they called to fill their vacancy in their pulpit must be not over 35 years old; married; an evangelist; a lodge man; a mixer; a crank and must be willing to assume the hardness of his flock.

An elaborately planned religious revival began at Joliet Sunday night when members and pastors of the various denominations assembled in the auditorium of the Congregational church to take part in a great prayer meeting. Committees from the various denominations were named to do plans for carrying on the work.

Four thousand persons were converted by mountain evangelists during the month ending Feb. 20, 1905, says a Middleboro dispatch. Of the number 1,800 joined the Baptist, 1,000 the Methodist, 1,700 the Presbyterian and 500 the Christian churches. The most noted and successful of the evangelists is the Rev. Stephen Wesley, of this city. Mr. Wesley served in the Confederate army during the Civil War and is now assistant chaplain of the U. S. V. of Kentucky. Last July he received from the government $135 for the horse he surrendered. With this money he bought a tent, which he moves from place to place. His success in the territory between Corbin and Norton, Va., has been phenomenal.

If We Had a Hatchet

Like the one George Washington used on the cherry tree, we could not be any more proficient in Cutting Prices than we are with our ax at this time of the year. In order to make an otherwise dull time a very busy one, we cut the prices very deep on seasonable merchandise. A look at our special values will prove this.

Carpets.

Our Spring Line of CARPETS are beginning to arrive, and when complete we will have a larger and prettier line to show than ever before. We carry all grades, from the cheap Hemp at 10c to the finest Axminster. We also show a large line of Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Mattings and Rugs. Our sample line represents a $5,000 stock.

FOR SALE—Hensington plants—mostly large ones. A. P. Brackett, Stanford, Ky.

THE C. W. B. M. will meet in the lecture room of the Christian church at 2:30 to-morrow, Wednesday afternoon.

MONEY—Supt. Garland Singleton tells us that the last draft for the teachers has arrived and that he will pay it out at once.

DON'T miss the Kinetoscope entertainment at Walton's Opera House to-night. Good, clean show and small admission prices.

SEE the Kinetoscope show at Walton's Opera House to-night. It is given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church and is worthy of your patronage.

GEORGE H. FARRIS, the popular grocerman, has bought the interest of Mark Hardin in Farris & Co's., and will run the business alone. His friends and customers, and they are legion, wish him much success.

THE up-to-date gent's furnisher, Cummins & McClary, enlarge their advertising space this issue so as to better tell of the good things they have to sell. Read their "ad" each issue and if you don't feel repaid for your time, we will be greatly mistaken.

GOOD WHEEL—Hoe Harvey Helm is back from Wagon country, where he was the Lincoln Oil and Gas Co., being in a good deal from their lease, not far from the Cooper field. This company has drilled two wells and both are considered good ones.

ROMEO and Juliet at Walton's Opera House Thursday night, March 9th.

A FEW more days like last Sunday and the beautiful voice of the titmouse will be filling the land with melody.

flowers will appear on the earth and the song of the birds will come, for winter will be past and the rain over gone.

FRIENDS here are distressed at the death of Miss Virgie Conant, which occurred at San Antonio, Texas, last week.

She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Conant, formerly of Hustonville, but now of Wichita, Kansas.

Miss Conant had gone to Texas in search of health.

I HAVE bought out the interest of Mark Hardin in the grocery and hardware store of Geo. H. Farris & Co. and request all who owe the firm to settle at once. Thanking our customers for past patronage and asking a continuation of the same, I am, respectfully, Geo. H. Farris.

THE Junction City Text of Macbeth here had a great time a few nights ago. A splendid musical program was rendered and during the evening State Commander M. P. Ekin, of Lexington, made a splendid talk on the good of the order, etc. The Macbeths of Junction City are in high feather over their entertainment.

We are glad to state to our Garrard county readers that we have secured the services of Miss Margaret Mount, the bright and attractive daughter of Mr. J. M. Mount, of Lancaster, as correspondent from that place. She will begin with Friday's issue and a newsy letter may be expected in that and all subsequent issues.

KILLING IN ROCKCASTLE—Thomas Deane was killed near Brookhead Station, Rockcastle county, by Eliza Langford. Three balls entered Deane's body. The shooting took place at a crossing of roads. They were brothers-in-law and there had been trouble between them. Deane leaves several children. The sheriff has gone to the scene to arrest Langford.

In order to prevent the opening of a saloon, the Bible College of Kentucky University closed a deal whereby it became the purchaser of a tract of land on East Short Street between Limestone and Walnut, Lexington, for $10,000. The property had been leased by P. W. Green, formerly of this place, and he had secured the signatures of enough people on the block to warrant the issuance of a saloon license.

SIMPSON—After a long, honorable life, Mr. P. L. Simpson breathed his last about 5 o'clock Saturday evening, at his home on West Main street. His death was due to the infirmities attendant on old age. Mr. Simpson was born on Dec. 26, 1817, and had been a member of the Christian church since he reached his majority. His wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Urton, died 17 years ago. Nine children blessed the union of this Godly couple, four of whom are living—Mrs. G. G. Taylor, of Detroit, Mich.; S. B. Walker, of Anchorage, Ed. Simpson, of Kofa, Ark.; and Miss Lucy Simpson, of this place. The latter lived with her father and her devotion and attention to him was indeed beautiful. Deceased was a native of Virginia, but moved to Jefferson county where he lived until 35 years ago, when he came to Lincoln. He was a kind, good man, and there are many who grieve at his taking away. Rev. L. M. Over presided at the funeral service at the late home at 3 P. M. Sunday, after which the remains were buried in Buffalo Cemetery.

WALL PAPER at all prices, from 25c up. Treibbe & Penco. Phone 25.

STANFORD is going to be quite a busy place. Trains of snow have been hauling it here for several weeks.

BAD FOR WHEAT—H. F. Hillenmeyer, the Fayette county surveyor, and author, says that if the present weather conditions prevail for another week or 10 days the entire crop of wheat will be ruined.

THE Romeo and Juliet engagement has been changed from March 7th to Thursday evening, March 9th, when it is more than likely that the seating capacity of Walton's Opera House will be thoroughly taxed.

DANVILLE is to have a new wholesale house, to be known as The American Extract and Chemical Co. It will be under the management of Thomas Longo, the young son of Mr. A. Longo, of this city, who will perhaps be the youngest wholesale man in the United States—Advocate.

LEE—Mr. Eugene W. Lee, one of the most prominent citizens of Boyle county, died last night after a protracted illness, aged about 55. Three children survive the clever gentleman, his wife having died several years ago. The funeral will take place at the First Presbyterian church in Danville at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Mr. Lee had numerous relatives in this county.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

It will no doubt be news to some of you to learn that, we have decided to continue our business in Stanford and that, too, on a larger scale than ever before. Workmen are now busy constructing an another room, where we expect to add a new department. We leave for the market in a few days and you can bank on the goods we bring back to you as being not only new, stylish and good, but away ahead of any shown in this market. Just wait and see. John P. Jones.

"SHREVE" production of Shakespeare's immortal drama "Romeo and Juliet," was presented before a large audience at the opera house last evening.

The great play was enhanced with special scenic efforts and most beautiful wardrobe and was very well received, the best passages being loudly applauded. All of the acting was good—some of it very fine. Miss Pauline Paul, as "Juliet," is an actress of marked ability and her work throughout was superb.—Winstead, Conn.

Evening Citizen. At Walton's Opera House Thursday evening, March 9.

CIRCUIT COURT—The Spring term of the Lincoln circuit court began yesterday. The docket is about the average one but not a great deal of litigation is expected. The grand jury is composed of the following gentlemen: John W. Raines, James Hutchison, J. P. Cash, J. B. Williams, P. C. Sandridge, W. M. Daddar, L. C. King, Gus McCormack, John Dinwiddie, Robert C. Nussliery, A. E. Horton and John Lutes. Mr. Sandridge was made foreman. The petit jury is as follows: D. O. Ballard, Preston Beck, J. L. Beasley, J. L. Anderson, J. M. Carter, Jr., Wood Stigall, J. N. Carter, B. Y. Yocum, Lee B. Nussliery, J. H. Vanhook, Frank North, J. H. Higby, Jas. Holman, F. M. Dunn, B. W. Gaines, D. B. Tudor, J. B. Floyd, J. C. McWhorter, W. P. Carson, W. H. Rigney, J. T. Chadwick, J. B. Rout, A. C. Robinson and James Chappell.

SANDPiper—Judge Nicholas Sandifer, formerly of Danville, died at the home of his son-in-law, Prof. H. K. Taylor, near Louisville, aged 77. Judge Sandifer was one of the best known men in Boyle county and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by eleven children, four of whom were at his bedside when he died. The children are as follows: Henry G. Sandifer, cashier of the Boyle County Bank; Charles Sandifer, of Georgetown; Jos. P. Sandifer, of Covington, but formerly of Lancaster; Geo. C. C. D. and Cash Sandifer, of H. K. Taylor and Mrs. Marshall Bowden, of Louisville; Mrs. Marshall Hill, Mrs. Gabbert, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Bates, of Denver. Col. A reunion of Judge Sandifer's children was held about five years ago, at which all of them were present. The reunion were interested at Danville. Judge Sandifer was well known in Stanford and was probably one of the best traveling men on the road up to the time of his retirement, in point of service.

W. G. McBER bought the George W. Carson place near Turnersville for $300. It contains about five acres.

HIGHEST cash price paid for beef hides, furs, feathers, etc., by R. H. West & Co., Junction City. Get their price before you sell.

MR. J. F. CASH has bought the Light farm of 124 acres near Highland and moved to it. The citizens of the Maywood section gave him and his excellent family with regret.

COAL BUSINESS FOR SALE—Consisting of bins, scales, etc. A splendid stand and good business. The proprietor, on account of ill health, is determined to sell. This is a fine opportunity for some one. For particulars see L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.
